

FIRE-ALARM INSTALLATION

When it comes to the general security of your home, a fire alarm supported by an emergency voice communication system might be quite important. Such a system is capable of detecting fire, heat, smoke, and combustion products and alerting the fire department and the building's inhabitants to evacuate due to a potential fire hazard. We do thorough annual inspections, and our visiting team may recommend corrective actions to fix any flaws in your current sprinkler systems.